NEWSLETTER: 8th March 2019

Congratulations to our cup winners this week- Maisie Sloan, Christopher Hoffman and Lucy McVeigh. Well done to our friend of the week Ryan Barr.

A NIGHT AT THE RACES

The main event of the year for PTA fundraising is tonight at 8pm in The Thunderdome, Glengormley. Many parents have been working extremely hard to organise this. There are fantastic ballot prizes (see attached). There are still plenty of owners, jockeys and ballot tickets left to be purchased. Sharon will be in the entrance hall at the 2pm pick up and Kate will be there at the end of Multi Sports club. If you haven't had a chance to contribute yet, come on in and pick your horses & jockeys! Remember- you stand a good chance of winning & if you're not in, you can't win!

Thank you to everyone involved with running this event and to everyone who has supported it.

BIG BOOK SWAP

Many thanks to everyone for your support with the event for World Book Day. The buzz about books was tangible and every child got excited about their new books. Your lovely comments in praise of this event meant an awful lot to us! I'm glad the children enjoyed it.

BOOK FAIR

As if you don't have enough books now, we are having our annual Scholastic Book Fair next week! We need some volunteers to man the till from 2:45- 3:30pm Tuesday- Friday. Can you help? If so, give me a ring/ drop me an email.

The Book Fair runs from 2- 3:30pm each afternoon from Tuesday 12th- Friday 15th in the library. School receives a large percentage of the profits back in the form of books, so all the children benefit from the purchases made. I hope you will come along and build on the enthusiasm of the Big Book Swap!

SCHOOL GARDEN

On 20th March some volunteers from BT will be coming in to clean up and beautify our school garden and Ulster Bank employees are coming to help in the garden too, (provisional date of 4th April). If anyone would like to come and lend a hand on either of those occasions, please contact me. We are also seeking some garden tools (on loan). Let me know if you can help us out with tools or you want to get your hands dirty!

Thanks to Ana Caddell for the contact with Ulster Bank and Gerard McVeigh for the BT team.
